The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both primary and secondary data collection techniques. The primary data was gathered through direct observation and interviews, while secondary data was obtained from existing reports and databases.

The third section details the statistical analysis performed on the collected data. This involves the use of descriptive statistics to summarize the data and inferential statistics to test hypotheses. The results of these analyses are presented in the following tables and charts.

The final section of the document provides a comprehensive conclusion based on the findings. It highlights the key insights gained from the study and offers practical recommendations for future research and implementation. The author also acknowledges the limitations of the study and expresses gratitude to the participants and the funding organization.

Tombstone Inscriptions in the Burial Ground of the old Bushwick Church, (Brooklyn, N. Y.) Copied August, 1880,

BY GEORGE SPARROW, A. M.

In the rear of the church, on a brown stone, lying flat, heading the church, the first stone from the east :

"Hier Leyt Begraven het Lichaem Van Anderies Stockholm, is geboren den 29 July, 1696, en overleden den 28 February, 1773, den Zynde 76 Jaren en 7 maende."

The next stone, also lying flat, is a white slab heading west, its foot butting against the above :

"In memory of Elizabeth, wife of Peter Cornel, who died Aug. 30, 1780, aged 55 years."

The next stone westward, a small white marble slab, adjoining the above, and heading south, reads :

"Capt. Lawrence Coe, died Aug. 24, 1780, aged 50 years."

The adjoining stone to the west, is a white marble slab, heading south, and reads :

"In memory of William Morrell, who died April 14th, 1831, aged 30 years and 5 months."

His languishing heart is at rest

Its thinking and aching all o'er ;

His quiet immovable breast

Is heaved by affliction no more.

His heart is no longer the seat

Of grievous and torturing pain.

It ceases to flutter and beat

It never shall flutter again.

The next stone to the west, is a white marble slab, also heading south :

"In memory of Isaac De Bevoise, who was born July 10, 1757, died Nov. 16, 1831, aged 74 years, 4 mos. & 6 days. He was called away in the midst of his usefulness, while sustaining an official relation to the Reformed D. Church, of Bushwick, being an acting elder in the same, and eminently devoted to its interests. Behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace.

Also of Maria Jane De Bevoise, born Sept. 6, 1831, and died Oct. 14, 1831.

And of Magdalen De Bevoise, born Jan. 30, 1830, and died Oct. 21, 1831, daughters of Charles and Adriana De Bevoise.

Alas how changed the lovely pair,
Which smiled and cheered our hearts,
Fair fleeting comforts of an hour,
How soon we'r called to part !
We part alas ! but oh ! how sweet
Whilst mourning o'er the past
To think that we again shall meet
And share an heavenly rest."

Next west, also heading south, a white marble slab :

"In memory of Adriana, wife of Charles De Bevoise, who died Nov. 6, 1833, aged 27 years, 11 mos. and 8 days. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

Allied to Christ, in Him they rest
How sweet their slumbers are,
From sorrow and from sin released
And freed from every snare.
Far from this world of toil and strife
They're present with the Lord,
The labors of this mortal life
End in a rich reward."

The next, a white marble slab, heads the same way :

"In memory of Patrick Weir, son of Walter Weir, merchant, Paisley, Scotland, who died on the 29th August, 1799, aged 26 years and 27 days.

As rapid as the torrent's stream
As transient as the meteor's gleam,
Is all our earthly joy.
We're born to live, and live to die,
Deaths' shafts around us always fly,
And soon our life destroy."

At the foot of the Merrill slab, is a white marble slab heading west. It reads :

"In memory of Ann Anderson, wife of Alexander Anderson, of New York, aged 22 years. What tho' short thy date ! Nature, not rolling suns, the mind matures."

Adjoining the above, also heading west, is a brown stone slab :

"In memory of Frederick Hueth, who departed this life Oct. 2, 1802, aged 56 years."

North of these, heading west, is a broken fragment of a small brown stone slab. It is west of the granite (next mentioned). All that is left reads : "In memory of M E L M D."

A rough granite boulder-like slab lies next, west, but its description is undecipherable, excepting the initials "B" "B" and "D" "B" "M" and the date 1756.

Lying flat, and west of the previous cluster of stones, is another row of white marble slabs, heading west. The one nearest the church reads :

"To the memory of John A. Meserole, who departed this life Aug. 12, 1833, aged 82 years.

Here sleeps beneath this humble pile of earth,
The mortal relict of transcendent worth
In Virtue's and Religion's paths he trod
And drew the modle of his life from God,
Serenely calm, in hope resigned his breath
And found his greatest, kindest, friend death."

The next, a white marble slab, lying and heading the same :

"In memory of Gertrude Meserole, wife of John A. Meserole, and daughter of Jeremiah and Ann Vanderbilt, who departed this life January 16, 1801, aged 35 years, 1 month & 18 days.

Lo ! where this silent marble weeps,
A Friend, a Wife, a Mother Sleeps
A heart within whose sacred cell
The peaceful virtues loved to dwell ;
Affection warm and faith sincere
And soft humanity were there."

The next slab north reads :

"In memory of John V. Robbins, son of Ezra Robbins and Ann his wife, who departed this life May 6th 1831, aged 23 years and 3 months.

Here in the cold embrace of death,
Here lies a youth of virtues rare
Mute is the music of his breath
And silent the voice that was so fair.
He has gone to his heavenly home
To dwell with Christ forever more,
In the garden of Paradise to roam
On Canaan's ever happy shores."

The next slab north, is also a white marble :

"In memory of Jeremiah Meserole, son of John A. and Gertrude Meserole, who departed this life March 8, 1827, aged 34 years and 11 days.

O ! Glorious victory of grace divine,
Jesus, the great redeeming work was thine ;
Thou called him in thy own appointed time,
To feel and magnify thy mighty power ;
Called to the joys which saints and angels prove,
Into the arms of everlasting love."

Footstone "J. M."

On the east side, facing east, and near the west wall of the old chapel, is a row of three erect slabs. The first, a white marble, reads :

"Erected in memory of Mercy, wife of Samuel Baseley, who departed this life Aug. 18, 1833, aged 31 years.

Her soul has now taken its flight
 To mansions of glory above,
 To mingle with angels of light,
 And dwell in the kingdom of love.
 Then let not her companion complain
 That she is removed from his sight,
 But hope soon to meet her again,
 With new and redoubled delight."

"Ellen Maria, daughter of Samuel and Mercy Baseley, departed this life Nov. 2, 1836."

The next slab, north, also white marble, reads :

"In memory of David Miller, who departed this life Aug. 4 1823, aged 38 years, 3 months and 19 days.

The world is vain and full of pain,
 With care and trouble sore ;
 But they are blest, who are at rest
 With Christ for evermore."

The next slab, north, is of grey-veined marble, and reads :

"In memory of David Miller, who died July 22, 1815, aged 61 years and four months."

- Catharine Miller, died Nov. 30, 1794, Aged — years & 4 months."

"John Meserole, died June 26, 1817, aged 1 year & 11 months."

Just beyond the old chapel, also facing eastward, is a row of three slabs. The most southern is a brown stone, and reads :

"Sacred to the memory of Harmpie Van Cotts, daughter of Francis Titus, and consort of David Van Cotts. She departed this life Decem er 15, 1814, aged 52 years, 9 months and 2 days. The memory of the just is blessed.

Can this dust live? blind nature cries,
 The Gospel answers, Yes it can.
 When Christ descends, the same shall rise
 And hail thy advent, Son of Man.
 Why then indulge the flowing tear?
 We check our grief and kiss the rod ;
 No more try triumphs, Death, we fear,
 The grave conducts quite home to God."

The next north, a white marble slab, reads :

"Sacred to the memory of Sarah Van Cott, wife of David Van Cott, and daughter of Samuel and Rebecca Edsall, who departed this life March 31, 1828, aged 32 years, 9 months and 13 days."

The next, and most northeasterly of the monuments in the yard, is a white marble slab, reading :

"In memory of David Van Cott, who departed this life on the 3d day of November, 1824, aged 70 years, 1 month and 1 day.

Here in this spot lie his remains,
 In perfect ease and free from pains.
 His blessed spirit took a flight
 To live with God in endless light."

Next, and north of the Koert De Bevoise tomb, is an erect white marble slab, inscribed :

"In memory of Sarah Titus, wife of John Schenck, died Sept. 12, 1838, aged 61 years, IX months & 10 days.

Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb,
 Take this embrasure to thy trust,
 And give these sacred relics room.
 To seek a slumber in the dust ;
 No pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear
 Invade thy bounds, no mortal woes
 Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
 While angels watch thy soft repose."

"Sarah Elizabeth, died Aug. 2, 1839, aged 6 months."

"John, died Oct. 6, 1842, aged 2 months & 16 days. Children of Charles and Sarah Schenck."

Fond parents own their loss severe,
 But Oh ! they should not weep,
 Their darling babes though now are dead,
 Shall not forever sleep.
 The Lord your little children gave,
 And when their time was come
 'Twas he in love an angel sent
 To bring them to his home.
 Now seated there on Christ's right hand,
 The objects of his love.
 Enchanting strains of praise they'll sing
 To him who reigns above.

About the centre of the ground is a slab of white marble, in excellent preservation, inscribed :

"In memory of Mr. Abraham Vandervoort, who departed this life March 5, 1849, aged 64 years, 1 month & 5 days.

Dearest father thou hast left us,
 And thy loss we deeply feel ;
 But 'tis God that has bereft us,
 He can all our sorrows heal."

Lying flat, east of above, and adjoining on the west and north, the Titus-Schenck monument, is a white marble slab, reading :

"In memory of Stephen Schenck, who died April 2, 1850, aged 45 years, 5 mos. & 10 d's.

Life's duty done as (illegible)

(Illegible) the spirit flies,

While heaven and earth combine to say

How blest the righteous when he dies."

At the foot of the last is a small white marble slab, heading west :

"In memory of Anna, daughter of John & Sally Ann Swezey, who died Nov. 9, 184—(illegible)."

Immediately in the rear of the church is a broken fragment of a white marble slab, sunken in the earth, and all that is legible reads :

"(Sa)ered — memory of H — Ann — of "

West of the Vandervoort slab, heading north, with its top either broken off or covered with earth and somewhat sunken and inclined downward, is a large white marble slab, on which what is to be seen reads :

"(Illegible) departed this life Aug. 17, 1842.

Weep not for me my child and husband dear,

I am not dead, but sleeping here ;

The debt is paid—the grave you see

Prepare yourself to follow me.

She, who death so suddenly cut down,

Ripe for heaven, in grace fullest bloom,

Think that now she wears the golden crown,

Soon shall rise triumphant from the tomb."

Four stones are lying flat face, or inscription side down.

Directly west of the last described David Miller monument, and in a line with the rear facade of the new chapel, is a small brown stone slab, its top broken off. What is left reads :

"—s Bogert, —arted this life —ber 7, 1819, aged — years and 16 days.

A man sedate, of solemn mind,

To wife and children ever kind ;

But tho' great merit mercy paid,

Death summons all men to the grave."

The footstone to the above is marked "A. B."

To the southwest of the Vandervoort monument, facing west, is a neat white marble slab, inscribed :

"In memory of Hannah, wife of Gruger Cantrell, who died Feb. 27, 1843, in the 44 year of her age.

Weep not, her love is round our hearts,

Her holy thoughts to us are given ;

Her spirit lingers near us now.

To turn our souls to heaven."

West of the last, and lying flat, is a large white marble slab :

"In memory of Jeremiah Boerum, who died on the 29th day of August, 1817, aged 27 years, 3 months and 27 days."

Standing leaning against the south fence, just west of the church, are two large white marble slabs. The inner one reads :

"In memory of Jacob Boerum, who died on the 30 day of October, 1852, aged 82 years, 7 months and 25 days."

The outer one has :

"In memory of Adrienna Boerum, who died on the 8 day of June, 1835, aged 81 years, 8 months and 4 days."

A large plot, enclosed with an iron railing, in the southwest corner, has no monuments.

Near the Humboldt street fence, and facing east, is a large white marble slab, inscribed :

"In memory of Jacob Van Cotts, who died April 23, 1845, in the 82 year of his age.

My weeping friends, remember me,
And you, my children dear,
Live near to God, that when you die
You may with Christ appear."

Directly north of the last, also facing east, is a white marble slab, which reads :

"In memory of David Van Cotts, who died March 11, 1845, aged 46 years, 3 mos. & 13 days.

The world is vain and full of pain,
With care and trouble sore ;
But they are blest, who are at rest
With Christ forevermore."

Next this, is a white marble slab, also facing east, inscribed :

"In memory of John Schenck, who died July 27, 1844, aged 77 yrs., 6 months & 27 d'ys.

How blest the righteous when he dies,
When sinks a weary soul to rest ;
How mildly beams the closing eyes,
How gently heaves the expiring breast !
Farewell conflicting hopes and fears,
Where lights and shades alternate dwell ;
How bright the changing morn appears !
Farewell, inconstant world, farewell ;
Life's duty done, as sinks the day,
Light from its load the spirit flies
While heaven and earth combine to say
How blest the righteous when he dies !"

Alongside, and west of the last, is another upright white marble slab, which reads :

"In memory of Gertrude, daughter of John and Sarah Schenck, who died July 10, 1849, aged 53 yrs., 1 mo. & 19 d'ys.

'Tis God that lifts your comforts high,
And sinks them in the grave ;
He gives, and blessed be his name
He takes but that he gave."

Next the last are two slabs facing east, upright and of white marble. The first reads :

"In memory of William Degraw, who departed this life February 8th, 1826, aged 33 years, 10 months and 8 days.

Go home dear friends and shed no tears,
I must lay here till Christ appears ;
And when he comes, I hope to have
A joyful raising from the grave."

The other :

"Samuel Holcomb, son of Stephen H. and Elizabeth Meeker, who died Jan'y 30, 1829, aged 2 years, 11 months and 9 days.

Sleep on sweet babe, enjoy thy rest,
Safe in the arms of Jesus lay ;
His guardian eyes watch o'er thy dust,
'Till the bright dawn of endless day.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be clearly documented and supported by appropriate evidence. This includes receipts, invoices, and other relevant documents that provide a clear trail of the financial activity.

In addition, the document highlights the need for regular audits and reviews. By conducting periodic checks, any discrepancies or errors can be identified and corrected promptly. This not only ensures the integrity of the financial data but also helps in maintaining transparency and accountability throughout the organization.

Furthermore, the document stresses the importance of clear communication and collaboration between all stakeholders involved in the financial process. Regular meetings and reports should be held to discuss the current status of the accounts and any potential issues that may arise. This proactive approach helps in preventing problems before they become significant and ensures that everyone is on the same page.

Finally, the document concludes by reiterating the commitment to high standards of financial management. It encourages all employees to take ownership of their financial responsibilities and to work together to achieve the organization's long-term goals. By adhering to these principles, the organization can ensure its financial health and success in the future.
